

Resources for praying and worshipping at home

Taize Chants

https://www.taize.fr/en_article681.html

Taize meditations and reflections

https://www.taize.fr/en_rubrique2601.html

Pray as You Go – Daily Prayer (also available as an app)

<https://pray-as-you-go.org/> - 10-12 minute prayerful look at the bible reading for each day

Online Sermons

<https://stalldates.org.uk/sermons-and-talks> – a variety of encouraging and challenging sermons giving good wise teaching

Online worship services – recorded (you can also find them via streaming radio live according to their schedule)

<https://www.premierchristianradio.com/Shows/Sunday/Worship-at-Home> – short services to listen to

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/b006qnds/episodes/player> – Live at 8am on Sunday mornings, or listen from the web page at any time.

Choral Evensong

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/b006tp7r> – services of evening prayer with music, sung by beautiful choirs throughout the country.

Written words of prayer

<https://www.churchofengland.org/prayer-and-worship/join-us-service-daily-prayer> – daily and weekly prayers being prayed by people around the world

<http://commonprayer.net/> - this one has beautiful, thought-provoking, short forms of services.

<https://www.northumbriacommunity.org/offices/how-to-use-daily-office/> - prayers for all times of the day, morning, midday, evening and compline

Prayer specifically for the situation around corona virus

<https://www.churchofengland.org/more/media-centre/coronavirus-liturgy-and-prayer-resources>

Until the end of Lent, you can also sign up for daily prayers to be emailed to you from the Church of England: short, thoughts for the day and things to pray about: <https://www.churchofengland.org/more/media-centre/stories-and-features/news-upcoming-campaigns-everyday-faith-and-liv Lent-2020>

Thy Kingdom Come

Between Easter and Pentecost (50 days after Easter) churches around the world join together in praying; Thy Kingdom Come.

Resources to do this at home, on your own or with your family (including child-friendly resources, which I often find are far more useful than the adult ones!) can be found here:

<https://www.thykingdomcome.global/prayer-resources>